

Nancy Wong

Nancy Wong has been a pillar of the Incline Village community for many years. As owner of the China Wok Restaurant, she is well-known among all Incline residents, who have long appreciated her friendly laugh and delicious food!

Originally from Taiwan, Nancy came to the US years ago with her husband Norman and raised three children in this community. Over the years, Nancy has gained the trust and respect of young and old alike, as she unselfishly supports many community activities with enthusiasm and ready friendship.

Nancy has taught classes with me at Incline Middle School and Incline High School for many years now. The students enjoy her fun, her kindness and her depth of knowledge of the Chinese language. Nancy Wong builds bridges wherever she goes!
